JAPAN THROWS BOMBSHELL IN LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

"BEWARE OF UNFORESEEN CONSEQUENCES"!

Rescind That Resolution Or We Shall Withdraw

BUT SIGNATORIES ADAMANT

GENEVA, Dec. 8.

Matsuoka threw a bombshell in the Assembly to-day by declaring that unless the resolution submitted by the Irish Free State, Spain, Czechoslovakia and Sweden on Japanese action as violation of material treaties was withdrawn, he would ask the President immediately to put it to vote.

"UNFORESEEN CONSEQUENCES"

If the resolution was adopted, he feared that it would have consequences which its authors had not foreseen.

The framers of the resolution immediately withdrew for private consultations.

THREAT OF WITHDRAWAL ?

The Implied Japanese threat obviously is that Japan will withdraw from the League if the resolution is adopted.

It is understood that signatories to the resolution will not withdraw it but vote will not be taken—Reuter

"IN LEAGUE'S INTERESTS."

According to a British Official Wireless message Matsuoka declared that the resolution has been drafted in a spirit of hostility against his country which was not compatible with the terms of Lytton report. He said that it was in the interests of the League itself that the resolution should be withdrawn.

The President of the Assembly, Mr. Hyams said that the resolution demanded consideration and time would be given for full discussion.

FRANCO-BRITISH DEBTS TALKS

PARIS, Dec. 8.

After four-and-half hours uninterrupted discussion between M. Herriot, Germain Martin, Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Chamberlain the Debts Conference has concluded.

Mr. MacDonald leaves for Geneva to-night and Mr. Chamberlain returned to London forthwith.

In the course of an exhaustive exchange of views, the statesmen reviewed the position arising from Lausanne agreements and American demand for payment. Both Governments have reserved independence but have affirmed their determination to persevere in obtaining by international co-operation measures to promote economic restoration of the world.—Reuter's Special.

BRITAIN TO PAY FULLY IN GOLD.

PARIS, Dec. 8.

Reuter states that Lausanne Agreements remain in force irrespective of forthcoming debt payments. Agreements will only be denounced if final satisfactory settlement is not reached with America.

British Government has not yet taken final decision with regard to payment. Decision will be reached by the Cabinet in the next few days but there is practically no doubt that the debt will be paid fully in gold.—Reuter.

SOVIET HANDS OVER MACHANSAN TO JAPS

TSITSIHAR, Dec. 8.

The Soviet Authorities have handed over to the Japanese Military in Manchuli the Chinese General. Supingwen and 40 Chinese soldiers believed to include General Machansan.—Reuter.

STOP PRESS

STATES AND FEDERAL FINANCE.

LONDON, Dec. 8.

During this morning's discussion on Finance States delegate on behalf of the Chamber said it appeared there was pre-federation debt of 119 crores, the burden of which states were not prepared to shoulder. He opined that income-tax should be handed over to provinces on condition of retention to recover the service of uncovered pre-federation debt, pre-federation civil pension charges and cost of establishing new provinces. He suggested moratorium in respect of a part of debt due to India's war contributions. The suggestion regarding moratorium was made "in pursuance of Lausane Policy." Other states representatives referred to ports of maritime states and urged that they should be treated as allies, not rivals.

The Federal Finance and Anglo-Indian Education Committees met this afternoon and Financial Safeguards Committees will probably meet on Monday. The date of the next meeting of the Round Table Conference is being fixed in accordance with committees' progress.—Reuter.

WAR DEBTS CANNOT BE CANCELLED

America's Reply To British Note

LONDON, Dec 8.

The United States reply to the British debts Note says that President, United States, is prepared through whatever agency may seem appropriate to co-operate with British Government to survey the entire situation, consider means to restore stability of currencies and exchanges, revive trade and recover prosperity. The President welcomes the suggestion for a close British and American examination of the subject in preparation for the World Economic Conference. This does not imply cancellation.

Consideration of other forms of possible compensation available for the expansion of markets for American products is necessary to enter such examination. The president emphasises that the problem of foreign debts in the American mind is very definitely related to disarmament and presents American standpoint.

POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT.

In reply to the British suggestion that the United States loans consisted entirely of expenditure on destruction and that payments hitherto made are largely responsible for the existing world depression and concentration of large amount of gold in the United States and that complete cancellation of war debts is essential for world recovery, the president says "we cannot agree these conclusions," and shows that a large amount of loans was spent on non-destructive merchandise. In some cases, purchases were resold and funds lodged in debtor treasuries. Some loans were spent in countries other than the United States and maintained the value of allied currencies.

NOT BORNE BY EXPERIENCE.

The President does not agree with apparent overemphasis on influence of debt payments on world recovery. The statement that payment of debts drained the gold resources seems not to have been borne out by experience. The United States gold is only 310 million dollars more than when payments began, while gold supplies in Europe has doubled since the beginning of 1924.

The President takes exception to the British statement that Lausanne Agreement was initiated with the cognisance and approval of the United States Government.

AMERICA'S "LIBERAL POLICY."

The Note recalls that Anglo-American debt settlement of 1923 provided for interest at three and three-eighth per cent, which is below credit of either country. The Note then refers to the liberal policy then laid down and also refers to the suggestion that Congress might sanction the acceptance of deposits of sterling in England transferable at the guaranteed dollar value at a suitable moment. The Note understands that Britain has declined this in the belief that the existence of a large sum of sterling awaiting transfer will affect exchange markets almost as seriously as the actual purchase of exchange.

Further informal suggestions are made regarding the methods of meeting difficulties. The Note is confident that Congress will consider any reasonable suggestion to facilitate payment of December 15th.—Reuter.

SOVIET GOVT. REFUSES TO APOLOGISE

Newspaper Allegations Against Foreign Office

"NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR Decisions Of Editorial BOARD"

LONDON, Dec. 8.

It is learned that the Soviet Government has refused to apologise for propagandist articles in the Izvestia on the ground that it cannot be held responsible for decisions of the editorial board.—Reuter.

"IZVESTIA" ARTICLE.

In a London message dated Dec. 7 it was stated:

Sir J. Simon summoned Soviet Ambassador on November 28 and told him that if the Soviet wanted to ensure friendly discussion of various difficult and complex matters, particularly trade questions which would shortly arise they must apologise for the language of the "Izvestia" article (alleging that Foreign Office instructed agents to furnish real or bogus documents establishing connection between Soviet Government and the Communist International) and take steps that no such further statement were made.

SIR NARSIMHA SARMA DEAD

Ex-Law Member Of Viceroy's Cabinet

Vizagapatam, Dec. 8—Sir Narsimha Sarma who had been ailing for some time expired on Wednesday.

Born in 1867, educated, Vizagapatam, Rajahmundry and Madras, Mr. Sarma (as he then was) worked as a teacher and professor for some time and later on practised at the Vizagapatam and Madras Bar.

He was Law Member of the Governor-General's Executive Council from 1[illegible] to 1925, and later Chairman of the Railway Rates Advisory Committee.—A. P.

CONGRESSMAN FOR SEVERAL YEARS

Sarma Advocated Army Indianisation

NEW DELHI, Dec. 8.

News has been received here of the death at Vizagapatam at two o'clock esterday morning of Sir Narasimha Sarma, Chairman, Railway Rates Advisory Committee after a short illness.

Mr. Sarma was for two decades a prominent figure in public life. His work in the old Imperial Legislative Council won for him the membership of the Executive Council which he filled with credit for five years.

Lord Reading was anxious to retain his touch with the Government and appointed him as Chairman of the Railay Advisory Committee which post he held till his death.

ADVOCATE OF INDIANISATION.

Mr. Sarma interested himself particularly in economic affairs of the country and while he was a non-official member, he always advocated the cause of the Indianisation of the Army and the opening of State Bank. He was for a number of years a congressman, his last contact with that body being at Amritsar when he defended and Lord Chelmsford the then Viceroy against a censure motion.

Mr. Sarma died at the age of 66.—A. P.

STORY OF MRS. COUSINS' ARREST & RELEASE

Ordinance Bill Echo At Triplicane Beach Meeting

SERGEANT DID IT UNDER MISAPPREHENSION SAYS INSPECTOR

MADRAS, Dec. 8.

Some commotion was caused last evening in a public meeting at Triplicane Beach, when Mrs. Cousins was arrested by a Police Sergeant.

It appears that the meeting was held as a protest against the Ordinance Bill. While the proceedings were about to close, a Police Sergeant came and asked the speaker to stop his speech.

MRS. COUSINS ARRESTED.

Mrs. Cousins who was present there, got up and said that she would endorse every word of the previous speaker about the Ordinance Bill. The Sergeant arrested her and brought her out.

Meanwhile, the Division Inspector came and told her that the Sergeant had arrested her under a misapprehension and that she could go home.—A. P.

LATER.

MRS. COUSINS GAGGED.

The Police Commissioner has issued an order under Section 144 prohibiting Mrs. Margaret E. Cousins from delivering public lectures within the Madras City for one month.—A.P.

ANOTHER SURPRISE FOR COTTON TRADE

Bureau's Estimate Of American Crop Exceeds All Reports

MARKET DOES NOT RESPOND TO BUREAU'S BEARISH FINDINGS

To-day's Bureau report exceeded average expectations by several hundred thousand bales, but the market actually took no notice of it and prices remained very steady.

This season from the early start of the crop, the Agriculture Department issued most surprising reports and even to-day's final report is not an exception.

MARKET WELL LIQUIDATED

The market was well liquidated recently owing to disturbed international financial and political situation.

There was steady short covering and trade buying which pulled up prices from the low level.

The action of the market was impressive and suggests a constructive stand.

GOVT'S FAULTY ESTIMATES

(From Our Commercial Correspondent).

BOMBAY, Dec. 8.
11-30 p.m.

The Washington Department of Agriculture has estimated the American Cotton production at 12,727,000 bales an increase of 780,000 bales on the estimate of a month ago. It was suggested in these columns that the action of the American cotton prices recently suggested that the crop would turn out to be about 12,600,000 bales.

It can now safely be said that during the early period of the present season, the Bureau made an unduly large allowance for possible damage, now that the crop estimate is raised to a level which none of the private reports indicated.

As a matter of fact the Government reports ought to state the actual condition of crop on a particular date and in their zeal to guide the cotton trade they made faulty estimates of the crop during the early period. Thus the unduly small estimated were surprises to the cotton trade and to-day's estimate is also an additional surprise.

If the U. S. A. Government can estimate correctly the cotton crop certainly they can help American farmers to a great extent, but cotton crop is a nature's product and is subject to God's weather will.

OFFICIAL ESTIMATES.

We give below the various official estimates of the crop issued this year together with fluctuations in prices.

We have had mounting rise of 435 points in New York from the 9th June till 29th August, and now we have once more reached the low level owing to increased crop estimates and much disturbed international political and financial situation.

BUREAU REPORTS AND PRICES.

9 June—Lowest N. Y. January 5.38.
8 July—Acreage 37,290,000 N.Y. 6.28+04.
8 August.— Bureau 11,306,000 bales N.Y. January 7.28+87.
29 August.—Highest N. Y. January 9.72+435.
8 Sept.—Bureau 11,310,000 bales N.Y. January 8.14—100.
8 October.—Bureau 11,425,000 bales N.Y. January 6.59—46.
9 November.—Bureau 11,947,000 bales N.Y. January 6.12—16.

The action of the market after the Bureau report was impressive. It is admitted that the present level is low enough and it is unsafe to sell short. It is believed that spinners are inclined to look upon the present level as most reasonable and some of them are buying cotton against their needs of next year.

NEED FOR CONSTRUCTIVE MEASURES.

The unfavourable economic conditions and much reduced buying capacity in the country of Gold dollars, call for constructive measures. It may be now or late, but if the economic structure of the world is to be saved, there is the greatest need for an early action. The United States of America may do it now, or the World Economic Conference may act in a such a way as to have an everlasting effect on the recovery of the World's trades.

The ginning report was 11,631,000 bales and the yield per acre is estimated at 162 lbs.

The local market opened at Rs 191 for Broach A|M delivery and after undergoing small fluctuations closed at Rs. 191 before the Bureau report.

The Bureau report was construed bearish and prices reopened at Rs. 186|8 and steadily recovered to Rs. 190|8.

The New York cotton futures market opened to-day at a decline of 12 points but recovered points from the opening level, when trading was temporarily suspended. New York prices were 8 points below last closing.

After the receipt of the Bureau report, New York market reopened at a decline of 18 points and gadually recovered. The market was well liquidated so there was no rush of nervous long liquidation, but shorts were covering a portion of their floating unprotected short interest.

Liverpool market closed at a decline of 8 points and New York futures were 11 points down. Broach was quoated at Rs. 189|8. The local market closed at 11-30 p.m. as under:—

Broach A|M 190|8; Oomra D|J 170|8, March 170|8; and Bengal D|J 151.—8 and March 152|8.

TATA POWER CO., LTD.

Questions About Managing Agents' Commission

Shareholders Resolve To Get Legal Opinion From Lonodn

Under the auspices of the Bombay Shareholders' Association an Informal Meeting of shareholders of the Tata Power Company Ltd. was held on Wednesday last, Prof. Davar presiding.

The Chairman explained that some years ago the Tata Power Co. became financially embarrassed and the Tata Hydro Co. came to its rescue by issuing debentures of Rs. 2 crores out of which it had advanced to the Power Co. Rs. 115 lakhs and retained the balance of Rs. 85 lakhs for itself. The Power Co. pledged with the Hydro Co. its B debentures of £2,50,000, and also its C mortgage debentures of Rs. 115 lakhs. It was arranged that the Power Co. should not only pay to the Hydro Co. 8 per cent on the amount borrowed but that it should also pay an additional 1½ per cent on the Rs. 85 lakhs retained by the Hydro Co. and a further 1/10th of its annual trading profits.

The Chairman informed the meeting that in the calculation of the managig agenss' commission, all these payments were not deducted. He then gave relevant figures and stated that the managing agents' contention was that in law the interest payable amounted to debenture interest, and therefore, was not deductible according to cl. 2(c) of the managing agency agreement. In this connection, the managing agents were relying on the pledge of debentures.

DIVERGENT VIEW OF SHAREHOLDERS.

The shareholders however took a different view and if the matter rested on moral grounds only the shareholders' contention was perfectly valid. But it was the legal aspect which gave some trouble. In view of the intricate nature of the issues and the large amount at stake, the Committee of the Shareholders' Association had thought that this was a fit case for obtaining expert opinion from London provided necessary arrangements for funds were made by the shareholders concerned. He requested the the shareholders to come to a decision.

Discussion then ensued and ultimately a resolution was passed to the effect that the Comittee of the Shareholders' Association should obtain legal opinion from London and a fund to be named "The Tata Power Company's Shareholders' Fund" should be started to emable it to do so. An appeal was also made to shareholders to subscribe generously to this Fund.

Subscription lis was then sent round and several shareholders subscribed on the spot.

PATHANS' MEETING:—A meeting of the Pathans of all sections was held on the 4th instant 1932 under the auspices of the Pathan Association of Bombay.

Khan Bahadur Abdussamad Khan, J.P. was elected President, and Khan Saheb Maroof Shah, Mr. Abdul Quddus Khan J.P., and Sultan Mohamed Khan Vice-Presidents and Mohd Khalil Hayatmir Qureshi, Secretary, and Haji Miyan Qamruddin, Treasurer.

Speeches were delivered by K. B. Abddussamad Khan J. P., Mr. Abdul Quddus Khan J.P. and Khan Saheb Maroof Shah. It was impressed upon the audience to mould their habits and characters and to be economical and helpful to their brothers. He pointed out that at present there was no unity among them.

DESHMUKH CHALLENGES COMMISSIONER'S CLAIM

Heated Debate Over Appointment Of Acting Officer In Corporation

The appointment of an acting officer of the Municipality evoked a heated discussion at a meeting of the Bombay Municipal Corporation on Thursday.

The Municipal Commissioner in replying to certain criticisms made at the meeting claimed that he as the head of the Executive was a better judges of the worth and ability of the officers working under him.

This contention of the Commissioner was hotly contested by Dr. G. V. Deshmukh who said: "The Commissioner implies that he is is the best judge of the merits of the officers. That is a position which I cannot accept. That may be the official view, but I do not think this kind of argument will go very far in a democratic body like the Corporation."

The discussion arose out of a proposition moved by Dr. Poonsey Meisheri, Chairman of the Standing Committee, that the appointment of Mr. N. V. Modak, Deputy City Engineer as acting Hydraulic Engineer during the absence of Mr. W. A. Niven, Hydraulic Engineer on leave be continued till February 1933.

OPPOSITION.

The proposition was opposition to the proposition on the ground that Mr. Modak was found to be very able in his duties as Deputy City Engineer, the post having been specially created for him.

Mr. B T. Desai, however, interpreted the opposition as being the outcome of a fear that Mr. Modak would lose the chance of stepping into the shoes of the present City Engineer who was shortly due to retire, if he was transferred to another department.

COMMISSIONER'S ASSURANCE.

The Municipal Commissioner said that there was no doubt that Mr. Moak had proved himself to be a very able officer as Deputy City Engineer. It might be true that Mr. Modak accepted the office on the tacit understanding that he would get a higher appointment. When the question of the higher appointment came, the Commissioner assured, Mr. Modak's claim would certainly be considered. The acting appointment was being given to him owing to practical difficulties.

Mr. R. K. Vaidya moved an amendment that Corporation do proceed to make a fresh acting appointment for the Post of Hydraulic Engineer.

The amendment was put to vote and was carried as a substantive proposition.

JAVLE'S RESOLUTION.

In this connection, it may be interesting to state that at the previous meeting of the Corporation, Dr. M. G. Javle moved a proposition that the post of Hydraulic Engineer be done away with and that the Commissioner be requested to approach Government for permission to do so. The resolution will come up for consideration at the next meeting.

CAR-VICTORIA COLLISION

Race Between Driver And Runaway Horse

BOMBAY, Thursday.

The driver of a car and a runaway horse had a miraculous escape, this afternoon, when a nasty collision occurred between a two-seater Essex car and a driver-less victoria on the Queen's Road. Both the car and the victoria were badly damaged in the collision, but Mr. Albert MacMull, the only occupant of the car escaped without any injuries. The horse which was terribly frightened freed itself from the victoria and ran pell mell on the road, causing anxiety among passers-by.

It appears at about 12-30, this afternoon, Mr. MacMull was driving his two-seater car towards the Churchgate on the Queen's Road at a moderate speed. Suddenly from a side lane, a driverless victoria came at high speed, and there was a nasty clash between the two vehicles, both of which were badly damaged. Mr. MacMull escaped with slight injuries, although the car was considerably damaged.

The horse, which bolted away without its driver was still frightened by the collision, and after struggling desperately tore itself away from the victoria and began to gallop on the Queen's Road. Meanwhile, the driver of the victoria came on the spot.

It appears that the driver has been running after his vehicle from a very long distance from the place of the impact. The driver ran after his horse and managed to stop it after considerable difficulty.

Sub-Inspector Hakim of the Esplanade Police, who having been informed of the collision arrived on the scene, and removed both the victoria driver and Mr. McMull to the station. Enquiries were in progress.

INCREASE IN WATER TAX

Tairsee's Conditional Support

The Bombay Municipal Standing Committee at its meeting held on Thursday agreed to an increase of 1/4 per cent in the water tax, which was the increase suggested by the Municipal Commissioner in his budget proposals for the year 1933-34.

Mr. L. R. Tairsee stated that they had already agreed to an increase of 1 per cent in the general tax in view of the proposed amalgamation of the Improvement Trust with the Municipality in April next. He suggested that the enhancement of the water tax could be effected after the Improvement Trust was actually merged with the Municipality and they were called upon to bear fresh responsibilities.

COMMISSIONER'S REPLY.

The Municipal Commissioner pointed out that fresh taxation could not be imposed in the middle of the year. As regards the amalgamation he would be in a position to say in January next Government's intentions in the matter.

Dr. Collaco thought that the revenue derived from the enhanced water tax would be a little over a lakh of rupees which hardly sufficient to cover the deficit in the budget. He therefore wanted that the tax should not be enhanced.

The Commissioner replied that they had been drawing heavily from reserve funds and in their present state of finances they could do something to cover deficits.

The Committee agreed to the Commissioner's proposal.

JUDICIAL CLERK OF MAGISTRATE DEFAMED

Allegations Against A Gujerati

BOMBAY, Thursday.

A request to the complainant "not to be vindictive" and compromise the case was made by V. M. Dalal, a Gujarati Hindu who stands charged before the Presidency Magistrate, Third Court, with having defamed the judicial clerk of the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

When the case was called out to-day the accused offered to apologise to the complainant and pay Rs. 25 and appealed to the complainant "not to be vindictive", Mr. P. T Karnik, the complainant however declared to compromise the case.

"MEAN AND SPITEFUL" OFFICER.

The case arose out of an application presented by the accused to the Chief Presidency Magistrate on August 9, last in which he alleged that Mr. Karnik was a "mean and spiteful officer" and that he "had prejudiced the Magistrate."

Mr. C. N. Kanuga, counsel for the complainant said that his client was in an embarrassed situation because the imputation were made against him as regards the manner in which he discharged his duties as a judicial clerk. If it was a purely private matter he would have compounded the matter.

ACCUSED'S STATEMENT.

The accused then made his statement in which he stated that on the day in question he had gone to the Chief Presidency Magistrate along with two others. The complainant asked them as to why they had come there, and a number of similar questions, whereupon he (accused) told him that he had no business to make those inquiries. At that Mr. Karnik threatened to complain to the Chief Presidency Magistrate and went into the Chamber. This and the manner in which the Magistrate dealt with the applications filed by his (accused's) two friends led him to make the remarks he made in application to the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

The case stand adjourned to December 13.

NEW ENGLISH GIRLS' SCHOOL

Celebrate Colourful Festival

(By Our Art And Dramatic Critic)

BOMBAY, Dec. 7.

The New English Girls' High School celebrated, this evening, at the Opera House, a colourful festival. It was distinct and well-thought out. It could not be otherwise. For, Miss Mrinalini Chattopadhyaya and her colleagues are of those, not yet a big community, intellectuals who do not think of art and particularly the theatre as less educative and less essential than the set routine and the set curricula which often mar rather make the children.

In a brief programme of two main items, "The King's Jester" and "Midas," the students of the school had more than ample scope to enjoy themselves and entertain as well the audience which discerned their play with not unnatural affection and response. They did not miss the opportunity. Except for the occasional inaudibility no fault of the young players, due to the deeply recessed stage, the "King's Jester" ran smoothly and well Kumar Prahlad Rajam bore the burden of the story well on his young shoulders. "Midas" which followed after the interval was on a more ambitious scale. It was staged with skill. Kumaris Perin Davar as "Midas," Siloo Baga as "Pan," Kamlia Tyabji as "Barber," were playing their part with confident enthusiasm. It was, however, Kumari Piloo Soonawala acting the "Apollo," who was marked out by her talents as, perhaps, the star player of the evening. She was restrained, dignified, audible and distinct.

Of the dances by Kumaris Roshen Lalkaka, Naju Pandole and Khorshed Vazifdar, the fisst two were indeed noteworthy. Kumari Vazifdar who appeared last seems to be one with careful guidance would be a promising artist.

The stage sets, and lighting as well as the costumes were, no doubt, a feature of the show. The colours were the most attractive note of the evening. They were a refined harmony.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1932

GOOD OUT OF EVIL

Government have scored for the time being in carrying both the Ottawa resolution and the Ordinance Bill through the Legislative Assembly. They owe their victory largely to the nominated members, who have been obedient enough to their masters and to the absence of Congressmen in the Assembly. That body was, therefore, hardly able to offer strong opposition to the Ordinance legislation and the Ottawa deal. But we are not sure that Government are very jubilant over their legislative triumphs or that they feel that the last word has been said on the Ottawa Pact or the Ordinance Bill.

JOURNEY'S END?

Concluding the debate on the latter Mr. Haig said they had come to their journey's end. We fear that if one journey has ended a thornier and more strenuous one has begun but we are confident that the people are prepared for it and, if necessary for thornier journeys till they arrive at their final destination. What is that final destination? A precise answer will depend upon the circumstances of the next few months and it is unnecessary now to speculate about it, so long as the people are pressing on. Political freedom, like most other prizes in the world, go only to those who learn to convert apparent defeats into incentives to greater triumphs. If the people have not yet learnt that lesson, they will do so now from the prolongation of their present troubles, and they will emerge from these more disciplined, more self-reliant and more determined to win.

PROMOTE SWADESHI

The Ottawa Pact is regarded by Indian businessmen to be a blow to the Swadeshi movement. But it is possible for the people to parry the blow and defend Swadeshi against all danger if they pursue the cause with a religious zeal at any cost, ever realising that the spirit of enterprise and self-reliance which Swadeshi fosters is a valuable asset in every national field and is worth a great deal more than its economic cost. It is true that till India is more industrialised some non-Indian goods will have to be used under a judicious system of preferences. But so far as it is physically possible Swadeshi finished goods and Swadeshi raw materials ought to receive our first preference.

WRONG POLICY

As regards the Ordinance Bill, we wished it had not come to worsen a situation that is already bad enough in all conscience. But since it has come, the people have to make the best of it. After all, it should not be forgotten that the Bill only replaces the Ordinances. The Ordinance policy has increased bitterness and has not helped Government in their object. A number of people have suffered but the spirit to resist, as officialdom will have to admit, persists. The people have not been demoralised by their sufferings nor provoked into violence. And we trust that they will continue to be non-violent. Just as intensive Swadeshi yields quicker and better results, even so it may be that intensive suffering, faced with the true Gandhian spirit of non-violence will only hasten the day of final victory.

INDIRECT RESULT

By no means the least redeeming feature of the situation created by the passing of the Ordinance Bill in the Assembly is that a fair number of people outside the Congress will be disillusioned more than ever before regarding Government's policy of repression. In his final remarks on the Bill, Sir Abdur Rahim, who is neither a Congressmen nor a blind critic of Government said of the Bill: "This is not merely bad law but purports to abrogate whatever rule of law exists." He refused to believe that the Bill was meant only to put down the Congress Civil Disobedience movement and observed: "The Congress did not require this Bill, because its policy was not to escape the law but face its penalties fully and fill jails. So really, the Bill aimed at striking at the political rights and liberties of the people." If a fair number of those who accept this view—there must be some millions—bestir themselves and set about safeguarding their rights and liberties in all legitimate ways against all the assaults thereon, it will surely be a useful contribution to the nation's struggle for freedom.

Truculent Japan

The Geneva League is on its trial. Is it ready to make a laughing stock of itself by weakly submitting to the browbeating tactics on the part of one of its members, Japan whose attitude at the Assembly session of the League during the discussion of the Lytton Report shows little regard for pacts and covenants to which she is signatory. It is notorious that at Tokyo they determined to put up a stiff fight against the recommendations of the League Commission of investigation into the Manchurian situation and the Japanese representative at Geneva was asked to belittle the Commission's findings and oppose the proposals its report made tooth and nail. Lord Lytton, the head of the Commission has endeavoured, after the publication of the report, to explain the full significance of its proposals and his analysis has evidently had a favourable reception in Geneva. The smaller Powers in particular are agreed that the League must act on the basis of the report.

FREE STATE'S LEAD.

The Irish Free State took the lead at Geneva in sharply reminding Japan of her duties and obligations. The resolution submitted by the Free State representative in the Assembly of the League has the support of Spain, Czechoslovakia and Sweden. It is put forward as a joint resolution by these Powers. To this resolution, M. Matsuoka, the Japanese representative, replies with the threat that unless it is withdrawn, he will ask the President immediately to put it to vote. He adds further that if the resolution is adopted, it will have consequences which its authors have not foreseen.

BULLYING.

It is clear that Japan counts on the possibility of the Big Powers not being willing to bring matters to a head by voting upon the resolution. As before the expectation in Tokyo is that Britain and France will leave China in the lurch by exhibiting ultimately their anxiety not to quarrel completely with Japan over the Manchurian issue, however strong their verbal protests. The Japanese threat implies that at Tokyo they will be glad to severe connection with the Geneva League. If the League adopts a weak and halting attitude, faced with this continuous Japanese truculence, it will be a sad indication of its inability to compel obedience on the part of one of its members to adhere to solemn treaties and conventions and one of the fundamental objects of the League will be destroyed.

BY THE WAY

(By A Gentleman With A Duster)

Two years ago I was personally a great enthusiast for the R. T. C. method of solving India's political problem. I think there cannot be any other meaning of the R.T.C. method than this that agreement on knotty problems involved in the making of the future constitution for India should reach through the rational process of argument and persuasion. My enthusiasm as I find of many others, waned with the experience of the Indian Delegates at the first R.T.C. The study of the verbatim reports of the debates in the plenary sessions as well as various other sub-committees revealed for the first time that the Indian understanding of the R T. C. method was really different from what appeared to be the construction put upon it by His Majesty's Government. I have endeavoured to check my impression by personal talks and discussions with various Indian Delegates to the first and second R T.C. and I am convinced that Indians have been misled into the farce of the R.T.C. by the construction which they put upon this method of finding a solution for India's political problems.

* * * *

The two statements, one on the Special Powers of the Governor-General and Governors in Provinces and the second on the Army, clearly prove that His Majesty's Government have not allowed one hair of theirs to be turned by all the arguments advanced by the Indian Delegates in support of the Indian viewpoint. Instead of endeavouring to meet the Indian view-point they have taken up a very adamant and uncompromising attitude on the question of the Army. So long therefore as the British Government are not prepared to trust the Indian people with the defence of their own country—which by the way is not demanded immediately but by progressive stages within a measureable distance of time—there can be little hope of such a constitution being ever acceptable to the bulk of the Indian people. It does not appear to have been fully realised even in this country what complete reservation of the Army would mean in actual working with regard to the transference of other departments to popular control. Take for instance the fact that of all Government departments, the Army wields the most extensive patronage in regard to the purchase of un-numbered kinds of stores. The Commerce and Industries Department being a transferred Department may regulate one policy for the promotion of India's commerce and industry but their efforts at the successful working out of this policy will not only be hampered but effectively negatived if the purchaser of a wide variety of stores and consumable goods like the Army Department is not to be expected to work in consonance with this policy.

* * * *

The Secretary of State also admitted that Indian Units cost less than British Units, and without adducing any convincing proof that Indianisation at a quicker pace would prove detrimental to the efficiency of India's defence he has dogmatically asserted that the military expenditure of India could not be immediately reduced beyond the present level. There are innumerable directions in which the expenditure can be reduced and in this connection I cannot help gratefully recalling the labours of the Army Retrenchment Sub-Committee under the inspiring Chairmanship of Dewan Bahadur Rangachariar. Even a casual reading of the report of this Sub-Committee would convince any impartial student of the subject of the immense possibilities of reducing India's Military expenditure but obviously this presupposes change in certain policies pursued to-day. If the British soldier and the British Military Officer are to continue to have higher scales of pay and remuneration than what they obtain in their own country, if the Indian Army is to be maintained always on the basis of preparedness for War as well as for the keeping of internal security, if the non-fighting branches of the Indian Army Department cannot be civilianised on the score of unacceptable strategic reasons, if the equipment of the Indian Army is always to be influenced by considerations of the duty and obligation which the Britisher in command feels for the amelioration of the economic distress of his own country—well then I agree entirely with Sir Samuel Hoare that there is no possibility of reducing the Military expenditure in India.

OTTAWA TARIFFS & FILM INDUSTRY

Reduced Rate Of Duty For British Goods

NEW DELHI, Dec. 8.

The Select Committee on the Ottawa Tariff Bill held a prolonged sitting under the Chairmanship of Sir B. L. Mitter and discussed many items on the schedule relating to imports

It is understood that regarding cocoanut, it was represented that imports from Ceylon had been increasing enormously during recent months and that the present duty should be retained. It was accordingly decided to retain the duty of 30 per cent on imports from non-Empire countries and 20 per cent on those from Empire countries.

As regards the film industry the Committee considered the duty on raw cinema films (unexposed) and decided to retain the existing rate of 25 per cent but reduced it by 10 per cent in the case of British goods in place of the proposal in the Tariff Bill to levy 30 per cent for non-Empire and 20 per cent for Empire goods.

MOTION PICTURES' DEPUTATION

In this connection, it is recalled that recently the motion Pictures Society of India waited on deputation on Sir Joseph Bhore and explained the injury that a raising of the duty would cause as over 80 per cent of film imports into India came from non-Empire countries.

To-day, the Select Committee members had the advantages of understanding the position of industry through a representative of the Society.

Among other industries which were considered in detail to-day, were soap and aluminum.

The Committee meets to-morrow.—A.P.

The next session of the Central Provinces Legislative Council shall commence at 12 noon on Thursday, the 19th January, 1933 at the Council Chamber, Nagpur.—A.P.

Who Has Lost Balance?

Nawanagar Enlightens British Public!

LONDON, Dec. 7.

The Maharaja of Nawanagar in a speech in London appealed for genuine co-operation with Indian which would increase trade with India three-fold.

Efforts were being made to arrive at a settlement with that part of India which had lost somethisg of its balance. He believed that if Britain applied herself to other part namely Indian India ruled by Princes, she would get opportunity of hearty co-operation and example would open eyes of other parts of India. He suggested also that British industry should turn its attention to the interior and not confined itself to large centres on the coast.—Reuter.

Nazi-Communist Clash In Reichstag

BERLIN, Dec. 8.

Trays, telephones, ashtrays, spittoons and inkpots were hurled at each other by infuriated Nazis and Communists in the Reichstag, this afternoon, following a furious attack on President Von Hindenburg by a Communist Deputy.

A spectator in the gallery joined the fray, and was set upon by uniformed Nazis, whereupon 50 Communists rushed upstairs, and continued the battle there and several were injured.

The House then debated the Nazi Bill handing over the Presidential authority to the President of the Supreme Court in the event of the former's death or resignation, designed to prevent power from falling into the hands of Von Schleicher.—Reuter

HOARE STATEMENTS UNSATISFACTORY

Mr. Chintamani's Cable To Premier

BOMBAY, December 8.

Mr. C. Y. Chintamani, President of the National Liberal Federation has sent the following cable to the Prime Minister, The Lord Chancellor, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and Sir Cowasji Jehangir (Junior):—

"Both statements made by Sir Samuel Hoare are extremely unsatisfactory. Reserve Powers of Governor-General and Governors and other suggested safeguads make Central Responsibility and Provincial Autonomy quite illusory. It is feared that Financial safeguards proposals will be enqually reactionary. Defence and Army Indianisation proposals will indefinitely postpone real self-government. Nothing short of Rawlison plan will do. Hoare proposals, if persisted in, will wholly alienate even moderate elements, rendering impossible co-operation in working out the constitution."—A. P.

Harijan Worker Fasts For 36 Hours

Breaks It After Saoner Orthodox Come Round

NAGPUR, Dec. 7.

News of a 36 hours fast by Mr. Tulsiram Lodhi, a prominent worker of the Provincial Anti-Untouchability Committee, has been received to-day from Saoner, a place 24 miles from Nagpur.

It appears that the orthodox section of the caste Hindus could not be persuaded by the Anti-Untouchability Committee to throw open public wells and temples of Saoner to the untouchables by mere appeals to their conscience. So, Mr. Tulsiram Lodhi resorted to the fast and the conscience of the people was touched, but not until 36 hours had elapsed.

They first held a public meeting and passed a resolution requesting the Zamorin of Calicut to throw open the doors of Guruvayur temple to the untouchables. Not a word of opening the wells and temples of Saoner to the untouchables appeared in the resolution and Mr. Lodhi would not break his fast.

A huge procession consisting of a thousand people was taken out which demanded temples and wells of Saoner to be thrown open to the untouchables.

The curtain of the drama was drawn then and there, for there was a ceremonial opening of wells and temples to the untouchables. Mr. Lodhi broke his fast after 36 hours.—A.P.

NAGPUR,

In the C. P. Triangular cricket, to-day the Parsis scored 268 runs in the first innings.

The Mahomedans made 42 runs for four wickets in the second innings at the close of to-day's play.

Notes of the Day

Growing Support.

News comes from all over the country that there is a growing volume of opinion in favour of those Muslim leaders who desire to implement at Lucknow at a truly representative Muslim Conference, the good work done at Allahabad. Sir Zulfiqarali Khan has agreed to preside over the Lucknow deliberations. A better choice could not have been made. In an interview with the Associated Press he said "I hope our efforts will bring peace and unity to all the communities." It is in this spirit that the Lucknow Conference is expected to work and those Muslim organisations which are being misled into refusing to send representatives to it should think twice before they decide upon their attitude of non-co-operation. It will only help the interests of selfish communalists.

Why Wait For It?

At a largely attended Conference at Pithapuram on Sunday last an appeal was made to the Zamorin of Calicut urging upon him "the supreme necessity" of immediately throwing open the Guruvayur temple to Harijans in view of the impending fast of Gandhiji. We are glad to note that public attention is being drawn to this question of temple entry in South India, the stronghold of orthodoxy, but there is a regrettable tendency in many places there to make much of the argument that unless changes were effected in the existing law, the trustees of a number of temples were unable to admit entry to Harijans. The Maharaja of Pithapuram advanced this argument at the Conference. But why wait for legislation? If the trustees have courage and humanity, they can remove the bar and public opinion, we are confident, will support them.

Scandalous!

A question in the Cochin Legislative Council elicited from the Government that there are over hundred public wells and 30 public tanks which are still closed to the so-called untouchables. Whatever legal difficulties might stand in the way of temples being opened to these people, it is an unmitigated scandal that public wells and tanks, maintained with public funds, should be closed to any section of the public. It does little credit to the State Government's sense of justice and humanity. A resolution was moved in the State Council a few days ago recommending to the Government to throw open all the roads, schools, wells and tanks maintained or subsidised by the Government to all the people in general without distinction of any sort. It is deplorable, however, that the Government did not accept the resolution. Fortunately despite the lack of Government's support the resolution was carried by the House by a large majority.

Legal Squibbling.

The Law Member, speaking on behalf of the Government, stated in the Council that "it is an elementary principle in law-making that unless there is a preponderating overwhelming majority in favour, the legislature or the Government will not be justified in legislating a reform and cannot compel a man to leave his orthodoxy" and that "Government would side neither with the orthodox nor the hiterodox" This is miserable quibbling indeed. The question is one of elementary justice to the tax paying public and not of any extra-ordinary reform. And in refusing to remove a grievous disability of the "heterodox" the Government are really siding with and pampering the orthodox minority. We trust that the reformers will not be content with passing their resolution in the Council but with by all possible means secure overwhelming active support for it from the people.

SHORTER MATRIC COURSE

A Six-Year Plan.

(From Our Correspondent)

BELGAUM, Dec. 4.

"If real economy of time and money is desired in Primary or Secondary education, we should adopt at least some of the recommendations of the Hesketh Committee" said Mr. K. G. Warty, the Head Master of the Gokak High School in the course of a lecture which he delivered on the subject of the duration of school course under the auspices of the Belgaum Teachers' Association, Mr. Ramabrahma presiding.

The lecturer narrated the story of his experiments in his own school and how he was successful in finishing the whole matriculation course in six years. He asserted that it was possible to reorganise the whole syllabus, and if vernacular is adopted as the medium of instruction in all subjects, it would greatly facilitate the work.

F TISH MUST GO.

Instead of making a fetish of the direct method of teaching, if we could combine it with a little of translation, the time spent at present on English can be reasonably and profitably reduced. When the duration of the school course and the standard we maintain are compared with other sister provinces and also with other nations, we notice a great waste of time. For the present circumstances, the course laid down for the matriculation is too little and can be finished in six years by an average boy.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

In concluding his speech. Mr. Warty made certain suggestions for the heads of High schools, one of them being the institution of an entrance examination at the end of standard 3, success which would enable the pupil to enter the High School course which was to be of three years only. The meeting terminated after some discussion on topics raised and the presidential remarks.

A brief agenda was placed before the Council of State to-day.

The Finance Secretary informed Mr. Ramsarandas that Government were not in a position at present to make any statement on the question whether the 10 per cent cut in salaries would be restored from April.

MILITARY IN DACCA.

Mr. Jagadis Chandra Banerjee put a series of questions about Dacca and was told by the Commander-in-Chief that provision and accommodation for the British Troops at Dacca was estimated to cost Rs. 4,75,000 which would be borne by the Army Estimates. There were no Indian Regiments posted there. The Headquarters of the Eastern Bengal Company of Auxiliary Force were located at Dacca. The Total enrolled strength of the Company was 172, of which only 21 were actually at Dacca. There was no permanent garrison stationed there. The resolution was passed, and the House then adjourned till Monday.—A.P.

CANCELLATION OF OIL CONCESSIONS

Britain To Refere Matter To Hague Court

LONDON, Dec. 8.

The British Government is sending a note to Persia intimating its intention to refer the matter of cancellation of Anglo-Persian Oil concession to the Hague Court unless the cancellation is withdrawn by December 15.—

LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE.

Minister Eden announcing in the House of Commons said that Government would submit the question as one of urgency under the original clause and request the Court to indicate provisional measures advisable to preserve their rights.

The Government's action is a sequel to the receipt of Persian Note which adhered to the cancellation on the ground that the terms did not accord with country's legitimate interests and repeated willingness to negotiate agreement on new terms.

The Note disclaimed responsibility for damage to the company. Further, British Government Note rejected the validity of unilateral cancellation, characterised cancellation as a confiscatory measure and a clear breach of international law. The Note refused to accept Persian Government's repudiation of liability for damage and then conveyed intentions stated in a earlier message.—Reuter.

LONDON, Dec. 8.

Enormous change in the position of women of India was emphasied by Lord Sankey who presiding at a luncheon organised by Y. W. C. A. said he regarded as probably one of the most important results of the impact of Western civilisation on Eastern. He added: "India's future depends on women—of India and England. We won India a century and a half ago but that is not enough. Our task now is to win Indians and it is through organisations like yours (Y.W.C.A.) that we can do it."—Reuter.

WOES OF P. & O. CO.

EFFECT OF KEEN FOREIGN COMPETITION

Impossible To Stand Up Unaided

LONDON, December 7.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the P. and O. Company honourable Alexander Shaw, chairman said that British shipping was still in a trough of depression the most profound and most prolonged that ever affected it The position had lately worsened rather than improved and had placed upon the Board special burden of work and anxiety. They had made every effort to reduce expenditure without sacrificing the attractiveness of P. and O. vessels to passengers and shippers. It would indeed be the short-sighted policy to curtail comforts and amenities which the P. and O. passenger enjoyed and they had not done so.

With regard to state-aided shipping he remarked that it was comparatively easy for foreign competitors to turn out spectacular vessels which would be entirely uneconomic except for huge Government subsidies.

NO SUBSIDY FOR P. AND O.

P. and O. had no subsidy properly so called. What they received for carriage of mails was merely payment, barely adequate, for definite services rendered. Others abroad were in a more favoured position. Indeed matters had reached such a pitch that Great Britain, almost alone among the nations had a mercantile marine run on ordinary economic lines. In every single trade in which the P. and O. was engaged it faced competition of foreign vessels built with the aid of foreign exchequers and run with the assistance of large subsidies.

ECONOMIC WARFARE.

British shipowners did not fear economic competition in any country of the world, but it was asking for impossible to expect them either, in cargo or liner trades, to go on for ever standing up unaided to face what was in fact carefully developed form of economic warfare. He would choose one example alone and did so in no spirit of hostility either to the foreign line concerned or to the great Nation whose flag it flew. Not very long ago an Italian newspaper boasted of the Italian line having achieved predominance in Bombay trade. That vaunting statement was hardly accurate, but it was significant when they considered of what that trade consisted. It consisted above all in the carriage of British subjects coming home to Britain on leave or returning to India after it.

ITALIAN PRESS JUBILANT.

The Italian press, he continued, printed lists of such people who travelled foreign, and naturally gloated over the highly placed civil servant or soldier who travelled on an Italian subsidised ship. In the meantime, P. and O. stockholders in their capacity as tax-payers had the privilege of paying fares of those very gentlemen who patronised foreign vessels which, by virtue of lavish subsidies showered upon them. were engaged in an endeavour to oust British ships from the trade of British port.

NO MISUNDERSTANDING PLEASE.

He did not wish to be misunderstood. They all had nothing but admiration for the endurance, patience, skill and labour which soldiers and civil servants of Britain gave so gallantly and ungrudgingly to the service of the Great dominion of India, but not all of them could have reflected that the mercantile marine was an indispensable link of the Empire in peace and war, and that without it the Empire could not have been created and could not continue to exist. If they considered the problem in that light they would no longer throw their weight into the scales against their fellow countrymen. Rather he believed that they would rally to the aid of those who in the teeth of worst storm her ships had ever encountered were striving to keep the red ensign of Britain flying over seven seas.—Reuter.

LEGAL HANDICAPS TO TEMPLE ENTRY

Maharaja Of Pithapuram Pleads For New Legislation

PITHAPURAM, Dec. 4.

More than 5,000 people, including a large number of ladies and Harijans attended an important conference held to-day in the Fort at Pithapuram to consider the problem of the untouchables, with special reference to the question of temple entry.

The Maharaja of Pithapuram presided, and among those present were Sir R. Venkataratnam Naidu, the Zamindar of Gollapalli, the Yuvaraja of Pithapuram. Dewan Bahadur C. Venkatachalam Pantulu, Dewan Bahadur K. Suryanarayana Murthi Naidu, Rao Bahadur P. Govinda Rao Naidu, Mr. C Lakshminarasimham and Mr. N. Subba Rao Pantulu.

NATIONAL QUESTION.

Dewan Bahadur C. Venkatachalam Pantulu who declared the Conference open stated that the problem of the untouchables had become a national question and earnest efforts should be made to remove this blot on Hindu society. At the same time, the propagandists should not outdo things by introducing questions of inter dining and inter-caste marriage in the present movement for the betterment of the Harijans.

The Maharaja of Pithapuram in his speech made some practical remarks on the question of temple entry for Harijans.

He was a trustee for several temples in his estate, and as such was bound by legal precedents and decisions. The Privy Council and the Madras High Court had adjudged that trustees of temples could not disregard customary laws and admit Harijans into temples, contrary to long standing usage. The Advocate-General also had given a similar opinion.

WANTED LEGISLATION.

The Maharaja therefore opined that unless legislation was introduced and necessary changes had been effected in the existing law, the trustees of temples could not admit Harijans into temples, and he hoped that necessary legislation would soon be passed in the Councils and the Assembly. Social reform workers would do well to see that the required bills would be soon introduced and passed into law.

The Conferece passed resolutions expressing immense satisfaction at the growing public opinion in the matter of the removal of untouchability and appealed to the people to take all possible efforts to translate their enthusiasm into action, with a view to blot out untouchability altogether and immediately, and appointing an Anti-Untouchability League to raise funds and conduct a vigorous propaganda.

APPEAL TO ZAMORIN.

The Conference also appealed to the Zamorin urging on him the supreme necessity of immediately throwing open the Guruvayoor Temple to Harijans in view of the impending fast of Gandhiji.

Telegrams received from Messrs. Birla and Konda Venkatapayya wishing success to the Conference were read.—A. P.

FINE ON CHITTAGONG INHABITANTS

Realization Ordered By Government

A communique issued by the Government of Bengal on the subject of the collective fine of Rs. 80,000 imposed on certain inhabitants of Chittagong district, the collection of which was deferred until December 1, says:—

As has already been announced, the Government have imposed a collective fine on Chittagong in connexion with the outrage of September 24, but for the reasons set out in the notification of October 25, they deferred collection until December 1, 1932. That date has passed and no tangible results being as yet apparent from the action initiated by the local inhabitants and no advantage having been taken of the postponement of the realization of the fine to assist the authorities with information likely to lead to the apprehension of the offenders, the Government have no ground for further postponing the collection of the fine and the work of realization will be taken up without delay.

It is the desire of the Government, however, to encourage in every way the growth of the spirit of co-operation of which some signs have recently begun to manifest themselves in Chittagong. They have therefore decided that, while the collection of the fine must go on, the decision as to the ultimate destination of the money will be left in abeyance for the present and meanwhile, the results of such efforts as may be made by the inhabitants of Chittagong to assist the Government in dealing with the menace of terrorism will be observed. In the light of those results the Government will consider in due course whether they would be justified in returning in whole or in part the sums already collected or applying the money to local needs instead of to the general requirements of the Province.

New York Market Nervous Awaiting To-day's Bureau Report

TRADE BUYING FOLLOWED BY SOUTHERN SELLING

Next Season Acreage Likely To Be Reduced 20 p.c.

Bombay, December 8.

The New York Cotton Futures Market was nervous and irregular on Wednesday awaiting the next Government Report. Prices advanced on trade buying but later declined on Southern hedge selling. The market opened at unchanged prices and during the early part of the session prices advanced 5 points on trade buying. In the afternoon prices declined 9 points on Southern hedge selling and the market closed at a net decline of 4 to 1 point. Spot cotton prices declined 5 points at 5.75c.

The New Orleans Cotton Futures Market was quiet and closed at a decline of 2 to 3 points. Spot cotton prices closed unchanged at 5.69c.

The Liverpool Cotton Futures market opened at a rise of 2 pts Light hedge-selling and some Bombay selling was offset by improved Egyptian Market and also by local buying on more hopeful feeling. In the afternoon there was liquidation and Bombay selling. It was purely a professional market. The market closed quiet at a decline of 4 to 2 points. Middling American Spot Cotton prices advanced 2 points at 5 17d.

East Indian Cotton Futures ruled easy and closed at a decline of 4 points with January 4.65 and March 4.58. Egyptian Cotton Futures ring was steady and closed unchanged to a rise of 5 points.

The Alexandria Cotton Futures Market was firm on active short covering and closed at a rise of 36 to 40 points.

Private crop estimates so far received here are as under:—

McFadden Bros.	12,618,000
American Crop Service	12,168,000
New York Members	12,146,000
Fossicks Bureau	12,316,000

Sales.

It is generally believed that the Bureau will be about 12,300,000 bales, and it will be construed a bearish statement. However, recent long liquidation has improved the technical situation and if prices decline after the report, there will be fairly large buying and short covering.

Present low prices are likely to reduce the cotton area next season, as it is proved that prices ruling in the month of December usually influence intentions to plant. Cotton cannot be grown at 6 cents profitably and with New York prices below 6 cents, the farm price must be about one cent. below. It is true that this season the crop is raised with little use of fertilizers and less labour charges, but weather conditions were fairly favourable. A small increase in the total supply cannot have material effect on the general trend of prices, and we think it safe to buy if prices decline after the Bureau Report.

ACREAGE REDUCTION 20 PER CENT.

Messrs. Thos. Smith & Co. state:—

Following a steadier tone in Wall St. and the latest Egyptian crop estimate of 4,450,000 Cantars against 7,892,697 Cantars 1931|1932 and 8,485,089 in 1930-31 the American market was quiet but steady. American advices indicate that present prices are discounting a Bureau estimate of 12,300,000 bales and approximately 50 per cent of the crop has already been hedged. The view that if payment is made by Britain on 15th Decr. precautions will be taken not to disturb the exchange, has caused some improvement in Sterling.

Advices from the South are very distressing and indicate that farmers have so far made no purchases of fertilisers and mules but many of them are disposing of their seeds usually held by them for planting purposes.

It is premature to forecast any idea as to next season's acreage, but present indications point to a reduction of over 20 per cent. should present prices remain over the next few months. Many fields are reported to have been left uncleaned and survival of weevil is expected to surpass previous records.

PRIVATE CABLES.

N. Y. March Highest 5.82 (11-24 a.m.) Lowest 5.73 (2-31 p.m.)

N. Y. January Highest 5.70+.03 Lowest 5.62—05.

Messrs. Chunilal Mehta and Co. have received to-day the following cable information from their Foreign Friends:—

Liverpool. Market expected Bureau around 1,22,50,000.

New York. Trade Continent price fixing. South sold. Quiet. Awaiting Bureau.

New York. House introduced farm relief providing for equalization fee debenture and allotment plans all in one bill. Our opinion probably nothing enacted this session.

New York. While conditions upset by War Debts question, believe December 15 payments will be made and matter considered further later. Still believe some form inflation must be brought about here but uncertain whether at present session of Congress or at special session.

New York. Market is well supplied with limited buying orders, so it will be rather difficult for any decline to extend very far. Market is influenced at present chiefly by political situation. Technical condition of market greatly improved. Feel that present prices discount the bearish news. We favour purchases.

Messrs Breul Co. have received the following cable dated 7th instant 5-19 p. m.) from their Liverpool friends. Messrs. Reynolds and Gibson.

"Favour purchases on all easy markets or even at present levels as we look for gradual improvement in world conditions in general."

Bombay Cotton

BOMBAY, Dec. 8.

In sympathy with a small decline of 4 points in New York Futures, the local market was expected to open at Rs. 192/- for Broach A./M. delivery.

The general feeling in the market is bearish and to-day's Bureau report is expected to depress prices. There continues long liquidation and some operators are selling and in the absence of any demand prices are reaching to low levels.

This morning there was heavy selling in the Mahajan Association and Broach A./M. delivery declined to Rs 189/12 In sympathy with this weakness, the market opened at Rs. 190/- and advanced to Rs. 192 during the first hour on buying by Japanese firms.

Recent liquidation has improved the technical situation and option dealers have also sold short against "Put" options. The general feeling in the market to inclined to look for prices declining to Rs. 180/82 before any reaction comes in. If prices decline after the Bureau report, we think it safe to buy for moderate prices.

The Liverpool market opened at a decline of 7 points and after a small recovery again declined on improved sterling to 3.26. Liverpool was reported 14 points down and our market closed at 5.30 p.m. as under:—

ANOTHER CASE AGAINST TYEB SHAIKH

Prosecuted For Participating In Strike

SAYS HE IS A GENUINE TRADE UNION WORKER

BOMBAY, Thursday.

A charge of "wrongful restraint" was framed against Abdul Tyeb Sheik, an ex-Secretary of the All-India Trade Union Congress this morning by Mr. G. R. Khairaz, Presidency Magistrate, Mazagaon, for having taken prominent part in the Khatau Makanji Mills Strike of May, 1931. The prosecution wanted the Magistrate to frame charges of rioting, in persuance of a common object, and causing grievous hurt to some of the millhands besides wrongful restraint against the accused. The Magistrate after hearing some of the prosecution witnesses framed the above charge this morning.

KHATAU MILLS STRIKE RECALLED.

According to the prosecution, the workers of the Khatau Makanji Mills went on a strike during the early part of May 1931, as their demand for an increase in their wages was not acceded to by the authorities. The Girni Kamgar Union conducted the strike and regular picketing by the Union volunteers was going on. Mr. Sheik and others took a prominent part in organising the strike as well as supervising the picketing. On May 19, the Mill authorities had arranged to get in new workers to start the work of the Mill.

The accused and others were sitting in front of the Mill gates, waiting for the new workers to come and the picketing had been strengthened. At about 10 a.m. a lorryful of new men were brought to the mills. The accused posted himself in front of the gate, and prevented the lorry from getting into the mill compound. The new workers got down from the lorry and the strikers began to throw stones of the new-comers and a fight ensued which was later stopped by the arrival of the police. The above accused and another volunteer were arrested on the spot. The volunteer was tried and sentenced alone as Mr. Sheik was absconding and was arrested in Calcutta only recently.

A month ago Mr. Sheik was tried by the Chief Presidency Magistrate on a charge of sedition and sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 300, or in default further six months.

A TRADE UNION WORKER.

In his statement before framing the charges Mr. Sheik said: "Ever since my return from the Continent I was intimately connected with the Girni Kamgar Union, which is a registered Trade Union Organisation. I was connected officially with the Union and not as a rowdy or a picket as has been deposed by the prosecution witnesses. I myself have participated in this strike. Considering the Trade Union Act of 1926 and the fact that the struggle of the working class has not been declared illegal in India I do not think that participating in this strike or by helping the workers would involve an industrial dispute between the management of the Khatau Makanji Mills and the workers. I was legitimately participating in that strike. I always used to do so ever since my return from the Continent. I used to attend meetings and demonstrations organised in support of the workers.

Magistrate:—I will not allow you to make speeches about Trade Unionism here.

Accused:—I am not making a speech.

Magistrate:—Do you say that you did not stop the lorry along with the others? I want you to give me an answer to that?

WHY HE HAS BEEN PROSECUTED.

Accused: I have not stopped the lorry and I did not prevent any workers from going inside because there were already pickets posted there. This case has been brought against me not because I was engaged in a particular strike but because I was helping the workers in their aspirations to achieve their demands. I assisted the workers. I did participate in the strike as well as in the settlement.

After lunch, Mohidkhan, one of the prosecution witnesses was cross-examined by the Defence counsel.

As Messrs. Khandalker and Gaikwad, the President and Treasurer respectively of the Girni Kamgar Union who have been cited as Defence witnesses did not turn up, further hearing has been postponed to December 15.

Mr. Velker conducted the prosecution, while Mr. N. G. Vyavaharker appeared for the accused.

MRS. SAKSENA RELEASED

Owing To Illness In Jail

LUCKNOW, Dec. 7.

It is understood that Seth Achal Singh, a prominent Congress worker of Agra, who has been undergoing imprisonment in connection with the Civil Disobedience movement, and who had been released on parole on account of the illness of his brother, has returned to the Lucknow District Jail to serve the remainder of his sentence.

RELEASED OWING TO ILLNESS.

Mrs. Saksena, wife of Mr. Gopal Nairain Saksena, formerly executive officer of the Sitapur Municipality, is lying seriously ill at the residence of her parents at Etawah. In view of the seriousness of her condition the remainder of her sentence has been suspended and her husband has been released on parole in order to be able to attend to her. They were both imprisoned some time ago in connection with the Civil Disobedience movement and were lodged in the local jail.—A. P.

ONLY MINOR CAUSE IN FALL OF WORLD PRICES

Lord Stanhope On Bimetallism

LONDON, Dec. 7.

In the House of Lords, Lord Stanhope for Governmet, replying to Lord Hunsdon pointed out that as the rupee was linked to gold the only prospect of improvement in the purchasing power of India in that regard was that silver hoards would be tempted out to buy commodities. Nevertheless, he explained that most of these hoards were used for ornamnts and for social purposes, and only a fraction was likely to be used to buy commodities.

He added that bimetalism was one of minor, not major, causes of the fall in world prices, and that bimetallism would be considered with other things at the world Conference, but it was not so important as to take the foremost place on the agenda.—Reuter.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE DULL

Improvement In Japanese Bonds

(SPECIAL CABLE.)

LONDON, December 8.

With the general desire to await events, markets were extremely quiet all-round.

The Stock Exchange opened rather more hopeful, but business was subsequently reduced to the minimum.

The only feature was a further sharp improvement of Japanese bonds. Sterling exchanges were firmer, the New York rate being 3.23-1/4.

Wall Street opened firm, and advanced, but trading became slower, and quotations receded slightly.—Reuter'

SOVIET OIL FOR INDIA

Calcutta Unaware Of Agreement Details

Inquiries made in Calcutta failed to elicit any information regarding the agreement said to have been made between the Soviet and the Western India Oil Distributing Company to supply India with Russian oil products exceeding a million tons.

The Western India Company is not known in Calcutta and it is surmised that Soviet backing, if a deal has actually been put through, is behind the venture.

Russian kerosene has, of course, already been sold in India and oil interests in India are meanwhile awaiting developments, although at the moment they way in which Soviet oil would be efficiently distributed present a complex problem.

LONDON, December 7.

The States' representatives appear to have taken a leading part in to-day's proceedings. Sir Akbar Hydari is reported to have explained an apparent inconsistency in his attitude by pointing out that he had signed the Peel Report subject to the accuracy of their date and the return of normal conditions which, however, had not been fulfilled. He pointed out that States would only join a solvent concern whereas seven out of nine provinces at present were deficit, while the Centre would also require certain amount of money. It was, therefore, necessary to place a tax like the income-tax at the disposal of the Centre for the service of pre-Federation debt, its backing and subventions to provinces.

POWER OF LEVYING INCOME-TAX.

As regards the future, Sir Akbar Hydari, is understood to have said that when the Centre and Provinces could balance their budgets without the aid of income-tax, it could be reduced; but the power of imposing it should be retained for emergencies, and in that event the States would make their proportionate contributions, for which they would make their arrangements.

PRINCES' VIEWPOINT.

Sir Manubhai Mehta, on behalf of the Chamber of Princes, is reported to have supported the provincialisation of income-tax, and said that the States would only contribute indirectly to the Centre, and would not be responsible for the unsecured pre-federation debt. He urged the reduction of expenditure to the irreducible minimum, in which connection he referred to the military expenditure, and said that if financial stability was achieved the States' entry would be easier. Other speakers included Mr. Ghuznavi who contended that the claims of Bengal in respect of the jute export duty, both on principle and equity, were irrefutable. He urged that if it was necessary to retain income-tax for the Centre at present, it should be transferred to Provinces when prosperity returned.

ORISSA.

Mr. Khallicote, making his first speech at the Conference, urged that the new Province of Orissa should be inaugurated with the Reforms, and contended that financial difficulties were not insuperable.—Reuter's Special.

"TELLING THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Why He Wrote "Greek Memories"

(SPECIAL CABLE.)

LONDON, December 8.

Before being committed for trial at the Old Bailey on the charge mentioned in the message of 16th November, Compton Mackenzie, who pleaded not guilty, told the Magistrate of Guildhall Police Court that the object of his writing "Greek Memories" was not any financial gain, but to tell the truth about M. Venizelos and the patriots who followed his lead in 1919. Being the only person in the possession of all the facts of the situation in Athens, he thought it was his duty to answer the propaganda which was being pursued for many years in the books against Allies and the Venizelist Greeks.

The London message of the 16th November referred to above reads as under:—

"The dramatic suppression of a book by a well-known writer on the day of publication, namely, October 27, had a sequel at the Guild-Hall. Mr. Compton Mackenzie, the writer, was summoned to-day under the official Secrets Act for unlawfully communicating in his book "Greek Memories" information obtained at Athens as a [illegible] of the Intelligence Service during the War."—Reuter's [illegible]

COME TO LUCKNOW

Conference Secretary's Call To Muslims

BOMBAY, Dec. 8.

Mr. Syed Zkair Ali, Secretary, Muslim Conference, has wired the following statement from Lucknow:

As previously published throughout India, I have invited all the existing Muslim organisations, which include almost all the members of provincial and central legislatures and other prominent Muslims in India, to consider at the Conference in Lucknow on Dec. 10 and 11, the "Unity Proposals" prepared recently at Allahabad, in which the Muslim Delegates, elected by the last Muslim Conference held at Lucknow on October 15 and 16 participated with a mandate to get the entire Muslim demands incorporated in the proposals. I eagerly wish to impress upon the Muslamans of India, that complete agreement and unanimity among the Indian Musalmans of different shades of opinion, which is a condition precedent to the realisation of their legitimate aspiration, was achieved, at the last Lucknow Conference.

CRITICS ALSO INVITED.

Having received an invitation from Pandit Malaviya to appoint a Committee to meet the representatives of Hindus and Sikhs, we elected certain members, with a view to bring about an agreement between the various communities of India, which is evidently essential to the attainment of Responsible Government. But our Delegates had a clear mandate that such an agreement must be based on the entire Muslim demand beign conceded. The concrete proposals are now before us. Now that there is fortunately, no difference of opinion among the Muslamans as to their political demands, it is to be expected that all the representatives of the existing Muslim organisations and others, who have been invited will make it a point to attend the forthcoming Lucknow conference. For those who seem to think that the Allahabad Proposals fall short of the Muslim demands, it is all the more necessary to come to this Conference in order to exchange views with other members, and to offer constructive criticism.

ARTICLE OF FAITH.

To most of us, the Muslim Demands, have been like an article of faith, and now when there is not a single Muslim left throughout the length and breadth of India, who does not subscribe to the famous Muslim Demands, it would be a real pity, if the Muslim cause was injured, only because some of us prefered to absent ourselves.

Let us all join our heads together, and do unanimously whatever may be good for our community and the country at large. I have recently issued invitations to each and every member of the Central Legislature, lest anyone of them may have been omitted for not being a member of some or other of the Muslim organisations.

I, once again, most earnestly, offer a hearty and cordial invitation to all Muslim leaders invited to attend the Muslim Conference at Lucknow.

Preparations For Conference

Arrangements for the forthcoming Muslim Conference, which is being held at Lucknow on December 10 and 11, to consider the unity proposals recently made at Allahbad are going ahead. A strong reception committee consisting of almost the entire Muslim gentry at Lucknow with Mr. J. H. Choudhary Khaleeq Uzzaman as Chairman are busy with the arrangements in connection with the forthcoming meeting. A large number of prominent persons have already communicated their intention to pirticipate in the Conference.—A. P.

Raja Of Salempur's Call To Muslims

LUCKNOW, Dec. 7.

Invitations have already been issued by the Raja Sahib of Salempur and Sheikh Abdul Majid Sindhi, president of the All-India Khilafat Conference, to the various Muslim political organisations to attend the All-Parties' Muslim Conference which will be held at Lucknow on December 10 and 11. These include the All-India Muslim Conference, the All-India Khilafat Conference, the All-India Muslim Nationalist Conference, the All-India Shia Political Association, the All-India Muslim League, the All-India Jamiat-ul-Ulema Conference (Delhi), and the All-India Muslim Youth League.

They have been asked to send the members of their respective working committee to the Lucknow Conference. A reception committee has been formed at Lucknow and the Secretary, Maulana Karam Ali, may be communicated with by the intending delegates as to the date and time of their arrival.—A. P.
